Carnival En Punta Cana takes place at the Barceló Bavaro Grand Resort in Punta Cana, Dominican Republic.

Carnival En Punta Cana Set for December

Following their safe and successful Cancun, Mexico edition, the promoters of Carnival En are gearing up for an intimate, premium all-inclusive Caribbean Carnival weekend this December, in the picturesque resort town of Punta Cana, Dominican Republic.

Carnival En Punta Cana, which takes from December 10 to 13, is best described as a hyper-inclusive Carnival-infused vacation weekend experience.

With all of the buzz following April's Carnival En Cancun, the organisers (known for popular Caribbean Diaspora event staples such as Silent Morning and Water Colours J'Ouvert Boat Party) have pulled out all of the stops to bring forth a creative yet authentic Caribbean Carnival experience in a controlled environment, complete with all of the beloved elements, commonly associated with the festival. With the pristine, lush Barceló Bavaro Grand Resort as its setting, the weekend of events will offer attendees a mix of class, cuisine, cocktails and Caribbean-style party vibes.

Boasting ten themed-restaurants, five buffet, 16 bars, seven swimming pools, seven tennis courts, two paddle tennis courts, a bowling centre, an 18-hole golf course, shopping centre, 24-hour casino and spa in addition to many other wonderful facilities and activities, this adult-only, beach-front resort located at one of the top ten beaches in the world, presents several amenities for those patrons seeking some leisure and down time in between the excitement of the weekend's events.

However, for Carnival enthusiasts who are ready to reignite their Miami Carnival high or for those who didn't particularly want to partake in any crowded fetes or festival parades, the promoters have curated a unique selection of electrifying events inclusive of breakfast parties, boat rides, pyrama parties and Carnival costume-themed parties.

In addition to a top-notch slate of themed parties, featuring a stellar cast of DJs set to a breath-taking backdrop, Carnival En Punta Cana promises to keep its attendees safe with strict COVID-19 protocols in its secure, luxurious, intimate, controlled party atmosphere.

The general mission of Carnival En is to unite people through the platform of Carnival and with the uncertainty of when the next physical festival may occur, this hybrid of "relaxation meets revelry" seems to provide the perfect solution for enjoying the mas without being amongst the masses.

Sobers serves up Crackers and Cheese

Calypso Queen Stacey Sobers is set to take the stage once again for her second concert in 2021. In recognition of Calypso History Month, Sobers will host Crackers and Cheese at Home, a livestream concert on Sunday at 6 pm. The show will be streamed via Lent Live.

Sobers will perform some of her winning compositions including Queens and Kings, which won her the 2018 NWAC-National Calypso Queens Competition. The concert will also feature performances by artists: Krisson Joseph, Darwen Pharaoh Greenidge, and the band Chantal Esdelle and Moyenne. Viewers will be treated to a range of music in tribute to such legends as Ras Shorty I, Andre Tanker, Singing Sandra, Brother Resistance, the Mighty Sniper and David Rudder. Master of Ceremonies for the night will be Omari Ashby.

Why Crackers and Cheese? "It is an epic Trindagonian dish, also known as Crix and cheese, that you can find at just about any event, from a wake to a garden party. This show will demonstrate the richness of our cultural diversity. While we cannot connect physically just yet, and there are a lot of people who cannot come home as well, the livestream event allows us to enjoy our traditions together, even though we are still at home," Sobers explained.

This is a second event that Sobers is hosting in 2021, following her online Carnival show in January which was streamed via the WACK 90.1FM platform. It was also important for Sobers to host Crackers and Cheese in October, in honour of Calypso History Month.

"This industry and this music has given me so much. It is where I found my voice and I have a great deal of respect for the men and women who came before me and laid the foundation for me to live my passion," she said.

Tickets for Crackers and Cheese are priced at $100 and can be purchased by contacting 683-5540 or online via valientive.com/events.

The live stream will be hosted via Lent Live, thanks to sponsors the Sport and Culture Fund, Lent Live, One Caribbean Media and Fenceline Consulting.
